NO YOUTH GROUP AUGUST 24 OR AUGUST 21

NEXT YOUTH GROUP IS SEPTEMBER 7

From Tina VanderWal

Like several other families in our Church, we were scheduled to host the Youth Group at our home. August is usually great for weather, but that particular day it was predicted to be only 71 degrees. For most activities, that is ideal weather, but for an unheated above the ground pool, hotter weather is needed. Ironically, the rest of the week was in the high 80's.

So, we are getting ready for the party the day of the event. We look outside to gray clouds and it looks like it's going to rain. Chuck and I discuss it, "Maybe it's time to cancel."

I'm sending in my article for the Messenger and call Margie our church secretary to make sure she received it. I share with her my disappointment with the weather and my leaning towards just cancelling the event. She then shared a personal story that encouraged me not to cancel. She told me how much she had enjoyed going to other people's homes while in Youth Group and that no matter what the water temperature was, they always went in. So true. Why hadn't I remembered our own children going into the pool as soon as it got up to 68 degrees. They were little popsicles, but they loved it. Also, her story reminded me that the Youth Get-togethers aren't just about swimming and fun, they are an opportunity to share God's love with them.

After the phone call, we decided to go forward with our plans. Contrary to our fears, several youths enjoyed the pool. In fact, a carload of kids that hadn't brought swimsuits because of the weather even went back to get them. And Tom Allen, subbing for Marcus did a great job with the Youth. Our friends Dan and Carla Dickey helped us with everything, and it turned out to be a wonderful evening.

I think many times in life when it is God's will for us to do something, the enemy puts up all kinds of roadblocks to prevent us from following through. We just need to drive through those blockades. If we do, we will find His blessings on the other side.

Sweet Lord, thank you for helping me to follow through when things we plan to do truly are your will. Thank You for helping me to continue no matter what roadblocks are thrown my way.

"Do not conform to the pattern of this world but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will." Romans 12:2
